CONCLUSIONS

Much of the area of Sonning Common Parish is taken up by the built-up area.

Sonning Common only became a parish for the first time in 1952

The village of Sonning Common is rural in character, but its parish boundaries are tight.

(Indeed the built-up area extends into Rotherfield Peppard parish and SODC planning have confirmed that area to be part of the Larger Village for planning purposes.)

The density of population in Sonning Common is thus high by reference to the wider comparator areas.
